Course

- 14 mile, low traffic, counter-clockwise loop consisting of good roads, "textured" roads, and dirt roads. There are some rollers and a decent finishing hill.
- The dirt section tends only to be a pinch-flat threat, but you may want to leave your carbon race wheels at home for this one.

Notes

- Wheels in/wheels out unless otherwise specified at race time.
- Recommended bringing multiple spare wheels.
- Payout will not exceed $499 for any category
- If needed, additional places will be added to conform to the 1 place per $100 prize list
- Registration opens 1 hour before the first race and closes 15 min prior to each event. Pre-registration is available online at Bikereg.com (Updated flier with link will be available in soon).
- If the minimum field size of 10 riders is not met, promoter reserves the right to combine fields and/or adjust prize list.
- All USAC rules are in effect. Racers must wear a Z90.4 or Snell approved helmet during the race.
- T-shirts will be available for purchase.
- Online registration closes 11:59pm (CST) Thursday, March 5.

Directions

- From Bryan-College Station: Take Hwy. 60 west for about 7 miles past the airport. Take a right on 50, travel a quarter mile and then make a left onto 166. Follow 166 to course.
- From Austin/San Antonio: Take Hwy. 21 through Caldwell to Cooks Point. Make a right onto 1362 and follow to course.
- From Dallas: Take 6 south and make a right onto OSR (just north of Bryan). Follow OSR to Hwy. 21 and make a right, follow to Cooks Point, then make a left onto 1362 and follow to course.
- Registration and start/finish will be near the intersection of 166 and 1362.
